

Mail Order Sources for Roses

Mail order is often the only way to get hardy roses or heirloom roses. Listed here are several mail order sources that offer a wide variety of specialty roses. They are a valuable resource not only for the plants they have to offer, but also for the information that can be found in their catalogs. This list does not recommend one nursery over another and can only be considered a partial listing of the many that are offering roses through mail order.

United States

Antique Rose Emporium

9300 Lueckemeyer Rd.
Brenham, Texas 77833
United States

<http://www.antiqueroseemporium.com>

Heirloom Old Garden Roses

24062 N. E. Riverside Dr.
St. Paul, Oregon 97137
United States

<http://www.heirloomroses.com>

High Country Roses

P.O. Box 148
Jensen, Utah 84035
United States

<http://highcountryroses.com>

Jackson & Perkins

2 Floral Ave
Hoges, South Carolina 29653
United States

<http://www.jacksonandperkins.com>

Canada

Cornhill Nursery

2700 Route 890,
Cornhill, NB E4Z 1M2

<https://www.cornhillnursery.com/>

Hortico

723 Robson Road, R.R. 1 Waterdown,
Ontario LOR 2H1

<http://www.hortico.com>

Northland Rosarium

9405 S. Williams Ln.
Spokane, Washington 99224
United States

<http://www.northlandrosarium.com>

Roses Unlimited

363 N. Deerwood Dr.
Laurens, South Carolina 29360
United States

<http://rosesunlimiteddownroot.com>

Vintage Gardens

4130 Gravenstein Hwy North
Sebastopol, California 95472
United States

<http://www.vintagegardens.com>

Wayside Gardens

1 Garden Lane
Hodges, South Carolina 29695
United States

<http://www.waysidegardens.com>

Vandermeer Nursery & Garden Centre

588 Lake Ridge Rd S,
Ajax, ON L1Z 1X3

<http://plants.vandermeernursery.com>